

Please reject petition 04-160. There is no justification to stifle the xm and other providers ability to broadcast this information. I pay for this service. I am a long haul trucker and am not familiar with which local stations might provide the information I need when I get to a city. XM provides it where and when I need it in a format that is more user friendly than the local stations.